

THE DEVIL STONE

It happened a long time ago: the dare devil wanted to destroy the church in Ják.

The priest offered him:

"If you can get here a piece of ruin from the ancient Savaria before I finish the ceremony, you can destroy the church.

The priest sent the ringer to the church tower to give a sign if the Devil is coming. He did it so. The priest ended the ceremony with Amen.

The Devil lost. He got angry and threw away the ancient stone, which landed in three pieces in the church garden.

Today, you can still see the three pieces as the rest of our memories. On the biggest piece of stone we can see the mark of the Devil's little finger. The second piece is in the Church yard.

The third piece is at the foot of the Church hill. The memory of the First World War is there.

The End
